Hoërskool Coligny word 100

NOORDWESTER – COLIGNY - Hoërskool Coligny is 'n klein, plattelandse skool met 319 leerders en 28 personeellede. Die skool het eers net bestaan uit die westelike vleuel van die huidige vierkant wat in 1924 voltooi is met Mnr PS Coetzer aan stuur as die hoof tot 1947.

Daarna het Mnr JC Geertsema die leisels oorgeneem, Ten tyde van die stigting van die skool het standerd 6 nog 'n publieke eksamen afgelê. In 1926 het Coligny se skool maar vyf personeellede gehad. Na talle pogings om 'n hoërskool te kry misluk het, was daar eindelijk sukses en die eerste vier leerlinge kon die std. 7 Junior sertifikaat eksamen in 1934 aflê.

Die hoeksteen van die saal is in 1959 onthul deur die destydse Direkteur van Onderwys, Dr. AH du Preez. In 1960, met Dr. Phil Smith as hoof, het die skool std. 9 en 10 bygekry, en die eerste groep kon in 1961 matrikuleer.

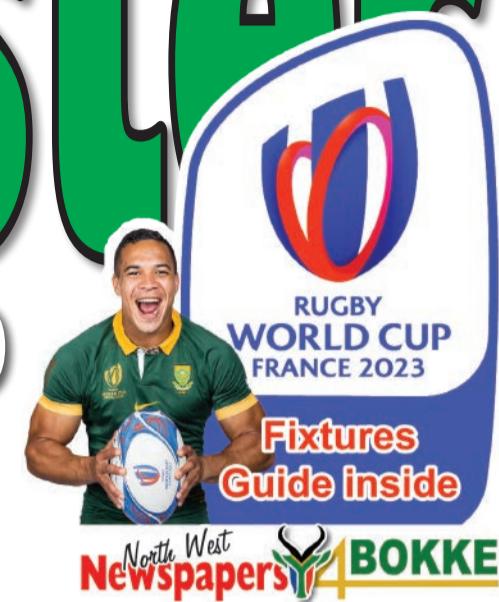

Die skool het in 1968 as slegs 'n hoërskool ontstaan toe die laer- en hoërskool amptelik geskei is. Oor die jare heen het die skool suksesstories van hul leerders gesien en vir talle jare in 'n ry spog Coligny met goeie slaagsyfers en prestasies. Die 100 jaar viering het plaasgevind op 23 September 2023. Daar is groot fees gehou. Die dag het afgeskop met 'n heerlike 5km pretloop, model- en troeteldierkompetisies en 'n motorskou. Daar was talle stalletjies wat enige iets van houtwerk, plante, klere, juwele, kos en koeldrank verkoop het. Feesgangers is vermaak met musiek van Riaan Burger en die Coligny Boereorkes. Na 16:00 het die massa-reünie begin.

Daar was groepe van 1966 tot 1992 wat heelik saamgekuier en gebraai het tot laataand. 'n Roete is deur die skool gestap wat vele herinneringe vir die matriekklasse teruggebring het.

Die dag was besonder spesiaal omdat Sarie Watson wat std 7 aan die skool voltooi het op die ouderdom van 93 jaar die reünie bygewoon het. Hester de Beer het ook al die pad van Australië gereis om hierdie geleentheid by te woon. Ons was ook geseënd om die verjaarsdag van Johannes Matone, een van ons algemene werkers, op die dag te kon vier. Ons bedank graag al die borge wat die dag moontlik kon maak, die skool se personeel vir hul bydrae en harde werk, en 'n spesiale dank aan Mnr. Hermann Potgieter en Juffrouens Belinda Steyn en Lizette Strydom vir die organisering van die fees. Ons het slegs positiewe terugvoer van al die feesgangers ontvang en beoog om so 'n massa-reünie 'n jaarlikse instelling te maak. Sien bladsy 11 vir meer foto's.

Fuel increase October

NOORDWESTER – LICHTENBURG - According to the latest from CEF, 95 Unleaded petrol shows an average under-recovery of maybe less than R1 for both grades of petrol.

If the current, and more positive trends continue for the remainder of the week, the final increase could be under 80 cents.

The situation is bleaker on the diesel front. Current information pointing to increases of about R1.70, but the more positive data seen in recent days could see it drop beneath that level by the end of this week. The predicted increases for October are largely due to higher international oil prices. "Should these significant increases materialise, they will push fuel prices to levels last seen in July last year, stretching the personal finances of South Africans even further," the Automobile Association said.

Foreign National convicted for smuggling cocaine worth R2.2 million

NOORDWESTER – NORTH WEST – LEHURUTSE - Disomo John Laurent (43) was convicted before the Lehurutse Regional court on 22 September for smuggling cocaine into South Africa worth over R2.2 million, through the Swartkopfontein Port of Entry.

On 28 August 2022, a multi-disciplinary team consisting of members of the Hawks' Serious Organised Crime Investigation and officials of the Swartkopfontein Port of Entry were conducting cross-border operations when a taxi that was traveling from Botswana to South Africa was searched. During the search, the accused was found in possession of three bags of cocaine which were hidden in false compartments within his two backpacks.

The accused was arrested and charged with contravention of the Drugs and Drug Trafficking Act 140 of 1992. He was remanded in custody and made a series of court appearances until he was sentenced to five years imprisonment or R30 000 fine. Additionally, he was sentenced to ten years imprisonment which was wholly suspended for five years. He will therefore serve an effective five years prison term.

The Provincial Head for the Directorate for Priority Crime Investigation, Major General Patrick Mbotho and the Director for Public Prosecutions in North West, Dr Rachel Makhari welcomed the conviction and lauded the sterling work by the investigating officer and the prosecutor. Three of three for Boks in Rugby World Cup finals

Fast facts:

The Boks in their seven world cups:

- Most tries: Bryan Habana – 15
- Most tries in one tournament: Percy Montgomery – 8 in 2007
- Most tries in one match: Chester Williams – 4 versus Samoa in 1995,

By: MARK KINNEAR

- Bryan Habana – 4 versus Samoa in 2007
- Most points: Handré Pollard – 162
- Most drop goals in a match: Jannie de Beer – 5 versus England in 1999
- Most matches as captain: John Smit – 11

• The Springboks have the best winning percentage of world cups played – 43%. New Zealand are second at 33%.

• South Africa is also the only country with a 100% winning record in finals played.

Springbok game dates first rounds:

SA vs Scotland - 10 September
SA vs Romania - 17 September
SA vs Ireland - 23 September
SA vs Tonga - 1 October

At a glance: SA's World Cup track record

1995 Final:

Beat New Zealand 15–12 deep into extra time. Storybook stuff, emotions at an all-time high. Cue Joel Stransky's drop-goal, Nelson Mandela and Francois Pienaar.

1999 Semi-finals:

Lost to Australia in extra-time, 27–21. Victory denied by Stephen Larkham's drop goal. Very tough pill to swallow as it came shortly after the infamous Klusener-Donald run-out in the Cricket World Cup.

2003: Quarter-finals:

Lost to New Zealand, 29–9. That was the time of Kamp Staaldraad. Best forgotten, maybe, or did it breed toughness that saw SA go on to better things?

2007: Final:

Beat England, 15–6, having also routed them in the pool stage. Francois Steyn landed some long-range kicks that had the crowd in awe.

2011: Quarter-finals:

Lost to Australia, 11–9. Remember the infamous Bryce Lawrence scandal, where he seemingly blew SA out of the game? Truth is, they should have been good enough to win despite this.

2015: Semi-finals:

Lost to New Zealand 20–18. However, this is the World Cup the Springboks are remembered for due to their embarrassing loss to Japan in the pool stage. What is often forgotten is how close SA came to beating NZ in that semi-final.

2019: Final:

Beat England 32–12 in arguably our best World Cup game ever. Thrills, tears and emotional highs as Makazole Mapimpi ran in the Boks' first try in a final, with Cheslin Kolbe providing a dazzling finishing touch near the end.

2023 Rugby World Cup – Springboks aim for fourth title

Mark Kinnear

The Springboks will open their 2023 Rugby World Cup campaign against Scotland at Stade Marseille on Sunday, September 10, at 17:45. The opening match of the tournament, between hosts France and New Zealand, will take place two days earlier, on Friday, September 8, at 21:15, at Stade de France in Saint-Denis on the outskirts of Paris. The world cup will be played in France from September 8 to October 28.

Twenty countries will compete in four pools of five teams each. Round-robin matches will be played in each pool. The top two teams from each pool will qualify for the quarter-finals. South Africa has won the World Cup three times. The first was in 1995 when Nelson Mandela-inspired Springboks beat New Zealand 15–12 in extra time at Ellis Park. In 2007, South Africa beat England 15–6 at Stade de France in Paris. The Boks won the 2019 final, defeating England 32–12 in Tokyo, Japan. New Zealand is the only other country to win the William Web Ellis Trophy three times, in 1987, 2011 and 2015. Australia has won it twice, in 1991 and 1999. Only one other country has lifted the cup – England took it home in 2003 and is the only Northern Hemisphere country to do so. This year, South Africa will compete in Pool B with Ireland, Scotland, Tonga and Romania.

Sacré bleu! Boks have dodged the Blues in all but one RWC

David Rush

Fast forward

There is a good chance South Africa will play France this year at some stage – that is if all goes according to plan. If the Springboks top their pool and the Tricolours finish second in theirs, then they will face off in the quarter-finals. Defending champions vs host nation.

Of course, this is far from certain as the Springboks have Ireland and Scotland in their pool and victories over these two nations cannot be assumed. France, meanwhile, have New Zealand in their pool. With the hosts playing some special rugby at the moment, it's an interesting situation the Boks find themselves in. The quarter-final match may well be the most difficult one they play. There is also the chance South Africa may have to play New Zealand in the quarters and, if all goes well, face France in the final. World Cups have a habit of throwing up unpredictable results, so let's see.

Viva la Boks

While Springbok fans are wondering if South Africa will ever host a World Cup again, the French have their second tournament in 16 years. South Africa hosted in 1995 and has not had a look-in since. Seems a little unfair. Maybe, but the Boks won't mind too much as France has been good to them, with a 15–6 victory in the 2007 World Cup final at Stade de France, against old foes England.

History

South Africa and France have been playing each other in Test rugby since 1913. Their first meeting, held in Bordeaux, was on January 11 in 1913 and was won 38–5 by South Africa.

Overall

The two teams have met 45 times in Test rugby, with South Africa winning 27 times and France 12. There have been six draws. Their last encounter was in November, with France winning 30–26.

Did you know?

Ireland's third pool match at the Rugby World Cup 2023 will be against South Africa at the Stade de France in Paris on Saturday, September 23. This will be the first time that Ireland and South Africa will meet at a Rugby World Cup.

Words worth (green and) gold

"Looking back, 1995 became a story about us, new South Africa finding its identity through sport. June 1995 was the moment in time when new South Africa took a long hard look in on itself and President Mandela showed the way towards reconciliation by putting his trust in the Springboks. It was a healing process." – Francois Pienaar, 1995

"Everyone always thinks it's such a happy time, but I can tell you now, I think all of us were so relieved that the four-year journey had actually paid off. You sacrifice so much of yourself and as a team, you go through so much over four years and it doesn't always end up like [a] fairy tale." – John Smit, Springbok captain, 2007, after the Boks beat England, 15–6

"I had my emotions under control until I saw Ricky Januarie and Wayne Julies approaching. My emotions just took over and I started sobbing on Ricky's shoulder. To see them shouting and celebrating pushed me over the edge." – Jake White, Springbok rugby coach, 2007, after the team won the world cup

"I was just grateful for everything the team has been through. We've faced a lot of challenges. But you know, the people of South Africa have gotten behind us and we are so grateful (to) the people of South Africa. "So many problems in our country, but to have a team like this... we know we come from different backgrounds, different races, and we came together with one goal and wanted to achieve it. I really hope that we've done that for

South Africa, to show that we can pull together if we want to work together and achieve something "We love you, South Africa, and we can achieve anything if we work together as one." – Siya Kolisi, Springbok captain, 2019, after the team beat England 32–12 in the final

Street children attempt to repair potholes in the streets in Lichtenburg

The Editor

Where there used to be safe pavements for pedestrians are now two large quarries. Apart from other crossings, this is at Third Street and Eighth Avenue.

The quarries are now too deep, so the workers moved closer to the road and dig near the high-power electrical transformer. It is fast becoming a dangerous situation. The road repairs are actually only a front, begging for money.

The loose soil is turned into dust in no time and only serves to pollute the surrounding area. Very soon the potholes are there again. In South Africa it is a crime to force or allow children to work. This is ongoing for a very long time, and many complains at various institutions still unsuccessful. As long as people keep on giving them money, they come back day by day.

Desolated resident.

Die blokraaiwinner van 15-09 is Marlette Lewis van Elfdelaan, Burgersdorp. Die wenner van Sudoku #730 is Lesley van Zyl van Breestraat, Lichtenburg. Baie geluk! Haal u prysgeld af by die Noordwester se kantore in Bantjesstraat, Lichtenburg. Onthou om u ID-dokument saam te bring. Hou in gedagte dat ons kantore Vrydae om 12:00 sluit.

Believe it or not ... Noordwester is still selling like hotcakes even though the death of the printed newspaper was predicted years ago. The demand for your only local community newspaper is growing, therefore we are inviting more local retailers to become part of our newspaper's distribution network. If you want to be a newsagent for Noordwester's newspapers, drop us an email at circulation@rustenburgherald.co.za or visit our office building at 40 Transvaal Str, Lichtenburg to complete an application form.

Do you also want to sell the Noordwester at your business on a weekly basis?

Dit is 'n uitgemaakte saak, papier kraai koning. Lesers is steeds mal daaroor om hul gedrukte gemeenskapskoerier te lees, daarom nooi Noordwester kleinhandelaars om deel van ons verspreidingsnetwerk te word. Indien jy nog altyd die Noordwester wou verkoop, is dit nou jou kans. Stuur 'n e-pos na circulation@rustenburgherald.co.za of besoek ons by ons kantoor te Transvaalstraat 40, Lichtenburg om 'n aansoekvorm in te vul.
